Every once in a while, a small company changes the game for everybody.

And if you've followed GovCon Giants...
we've done it before.

2017

We put it all on YouTube. Free.

2018

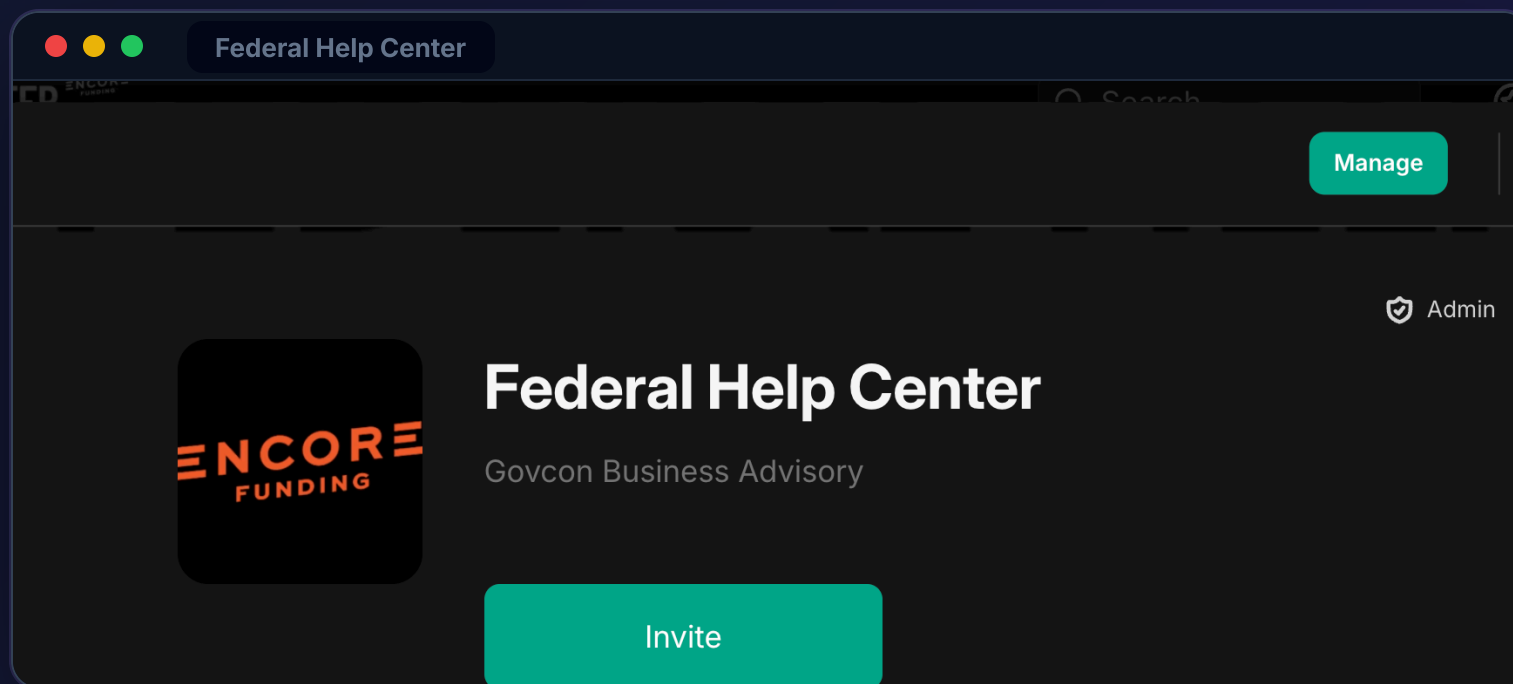

We launched the podcast.

2019

We trained 7,000+ small businesses.

2020

The Federal Help Center — a community where it all lives.

2026

A new revolution.
So we're going to do it again.*

For 7 years, everything we built lived in four places.

On the left, a sidebar contains navigation links: 'Mindy' (with a team plan button), 'Mindy Chat' (beta), 'Today's Intel' (AI, highlighted), 'Source Feed', 'Market Dashboard', 'My Pursuits', 'My Target List', and 'Pricing Intel'. The main content area shows the user is logged in as 'eric@govcongiants.com' and has a search bar for 'Contract #, company, UEL, or a market like "drones"...'. A summary bar indicates '94 opportunities match your profile' (up 7%), '57 this week', and '3 forecasts'. The 'Today's Intel' section provides a brief overview of best-fit opportunities and next actions, with buttons for 'Open SAM Dashboard' and 'Refresh'. A featured opportunity, 'State of Illinois 1 & 2 Job Ordering Agreement Contract Solicitation', is highlighted with a 'HOT RIGHT NOW' tag, showing it has '2 contractors' and a deadline of 'Jun 26'. Below this, a 'MINDY INSIGHT' section offers advice on utilizing GSA schedules to simplify procurement for contracting officers.

Mindy makes more of them visible & capable.
That's the mission.

So what would all of this normally cost?

TO DO WHAT MINDY DOES

A BD-data subscription (GovWin / Bloomberg Gov)

$20,000 / yr

A proposal writer

$10,000 / proposal

A capture manager

$150,000 / yr

A market / BD analyst

$100,000 / yr

You'd spend

$280,000+ / yr

So... what should we charge?

$149

a month.

For a market analyst, a capture manager, and a proposal writer that never sleep — and never make up a number.
