

Know Who to Call

Mindy Feature Series | Part 4 of 5

Live → Mindy Launch June 27 · Eric Coffie

Raw SAM Contacts Are Noise

Cryptic POC labels. Base codes. Foreign offices you'll never bid.

A dump, not a call list.

A Sample vs. A Target List

A Sample

"Here are some DoD contacts."

A handful from a giant agency. Where do you even start?

A Target List

"Here are all 42 people at DLA Aviation."

The whole buying office. A real BD call list.

Every Contact, Role-Badged

Contracting Officer

Signs the award — the buyer with authority

Small Business Specialist

Your advocate for set-asides and access

Program Manager

Owns the requirement and the mission need

Know Who to Call

The right role for the right question

The 5 Role Badges Mindy Applies

Contracting Officer	KO / ACO / PCO — signs & manages the award
Small Business	OSBP / SBLO — your set-aside advocate, call first
Contract Specialist	Builds the package — call for status & mechanics
Program / Technical	Owns the requirement — call about the mission need
Leadership	Sets direction — relationship & strategy

Title cleanup pulls real job titles out of generic "Primary Contact" POC slots.

Teaming the Realistic Way

Not the Giant Primes

Lockheed and Booz Allen you'll never reach.

Partners You Can Reach

- ✓ Tribal / 8(a) sole-source — fastest path
- ✓ Tier-2 subs who actually win this work

Grounded in who really wins — from USASpending awards.

Why Tribal / 8(a) Is the Fast Lane

The Unreachable Primes

Giant primes won't return a cold call from a new sub.

Long courtships, gatekept teaming.

Tribal / 8(a) Sole-Source

- ✓ Sole-source awards skip full competition
- ✓ Motivated to add capability fast
- ✓ Tier-2 firms that actually win this work
